

How to Organize a Women's Chainsaw Safety Workshop

A webinar offered by the national Women Owning Woodlands network

Have you ever thought about planning a chainsaw safety workshop for women? Join us for a presentation and Q&A on this exciting topic. We'll share tips on finding instructors, setting up a positive learning environment, navigating liability issues, working with partners, facilitating an impactful event, managing the budget, and evaluating success. You'll hear from Amanda Mahaffey (Forest Stewards Guild), Sarah Topp (Huron Pines AmeriCorps), Angela Wells (Montana DNRC), and Tiffany Hopkins (Oregon State Extension). We invite you to join the conversation!

Friday, March 22, 2019

2:00 ET/1:00 CT/12:00 MT/11:00 PT

Register here: <https://forestguild.z2systems.com/np/clients/forestguild/eventRegistration.jsp?event=44&>

About the WOWnet Professionals network:

The WOWnet Professionals group exists to support those working to engage with women woodland owners. It is a collaboration of natural resource professionals, Women Owning Woodlands, the Sustaining Family Forests Initiative, and the Forest Stewards Guild.

Want to stay connected? Join the WOWnet Professionals Google Group! Send an email to wownet-professionals+owners@googlegroups.com or amanda@forestguild.org to be added to the group.

This webinar is being hosted by the Forest Stewards Guild in support of the WOWnet Professionals Google Group, with funding from USDA Forest Service State and Private Forestry.